Churches Action for the Homeless:

The 9th Christmas Wrap for CATH was held on Wednesday, 12th December when over 140 gifts were prepared which was quite an achievement. Thank you to everyone who so kindly donated not only gifts but baking, time and effort to make sure that CATH service users were remembered at this particularly difficult time of year. The evening was one of fellowship and praise. Graham Taylor, Service Manager joined us on the evening and gave us an interesting and encouraging insight into the continuing work of CATH and the challenges faced by service users. Graham has expressed warm appreciation on behalf of the recipients for the gifts. Many thanks for your generosity, support and prayers for CATH, not only at Christmas but throughout the year.

Retiring Offering for The Sailors' Society:

The Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services yielded a further £595.46 for the Sailors' Society plus gift aid worth £31.25. Therefore, a total of £1,281.26, plus gift aid worth £162.50, a grand total of £1,443.76.

Large print orders of service are always available at the door for anyone who would like to use one - just ask. Spare copies are available but if you want to ensure one is ready for you, please give your name to the church office.

And Finally...
