How Can We Help? Take a look at our new leaflet 'How can we help?' which is an easy way to keep in touch with the minister and office bearers. The simple 'tick box' format covers a host of requests, from hospital visits and prayers to enquiring about membership or volunteering opportunities, or you can fill in your own request in the space provided. The leaflets are in the entrance hall and on the Welcome Table in the church and may be returned to the minister, office bearers or left in the box in the entrance hall.

Crossreach: the current magazine and prayer diary for Crossreach are available in the entrance hall. Please take them. Crossreach is the social care arm of the Church of Scotland and our congregation has donated to its work in recent years through our special collections at Communion.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS:

TONIGHT, Sunday, 15th April, Crossfire is watching the film "The Shack" at 7pm in the Church Centre. It is expected to finish around 9.15pm.

Please note that this film is a 12. Parents of younger teens may want to check that they feel this film is suitable, as it has some disturbing scenes around the death of a child. Having said that, the overall theme of the film is a positive one as the father begins an unusual journey of faith.

Family Week Preparation Evening: Monday, 23rd April in the Church - 7pm for coffee and cake, 7.30pm for the meeting. If you would like to help at Family Week this year, then please join us. We will explain the programme and then assign volunteers to each team. The team-leaders will work with their team to organise the group activities. We will be delegating the preparation jobs which need to be completed before Family Week. Even if you are not able to be with us in the summer, there are still plenty of jobs that need to be done in advance. Please join us on 23rd April as there will be a separate group for people to chat about things that can be prepared before the holidays. Thank you to all of you that have volunteered so far. There's space for plenty more - everyone is very welcome to join the team.

And Finally... Leven Voices concert. Leven Voices, under the direction of Alice Marra, will be giving a short concert in the church at 8pm this coming Tuesday, 17th April. The programme will include songs drawn from a variety of sources - Scottish, spiritual and contemporary. Entry is by donation and all proceeds will be shared between Kinross Centre and the Broke Not Broken food bank.
