Kinross Parish Church Coronavirus Response

In these unprecedented times the Kirk Session of Kinross Parish Church is putting the following arrangements in place.

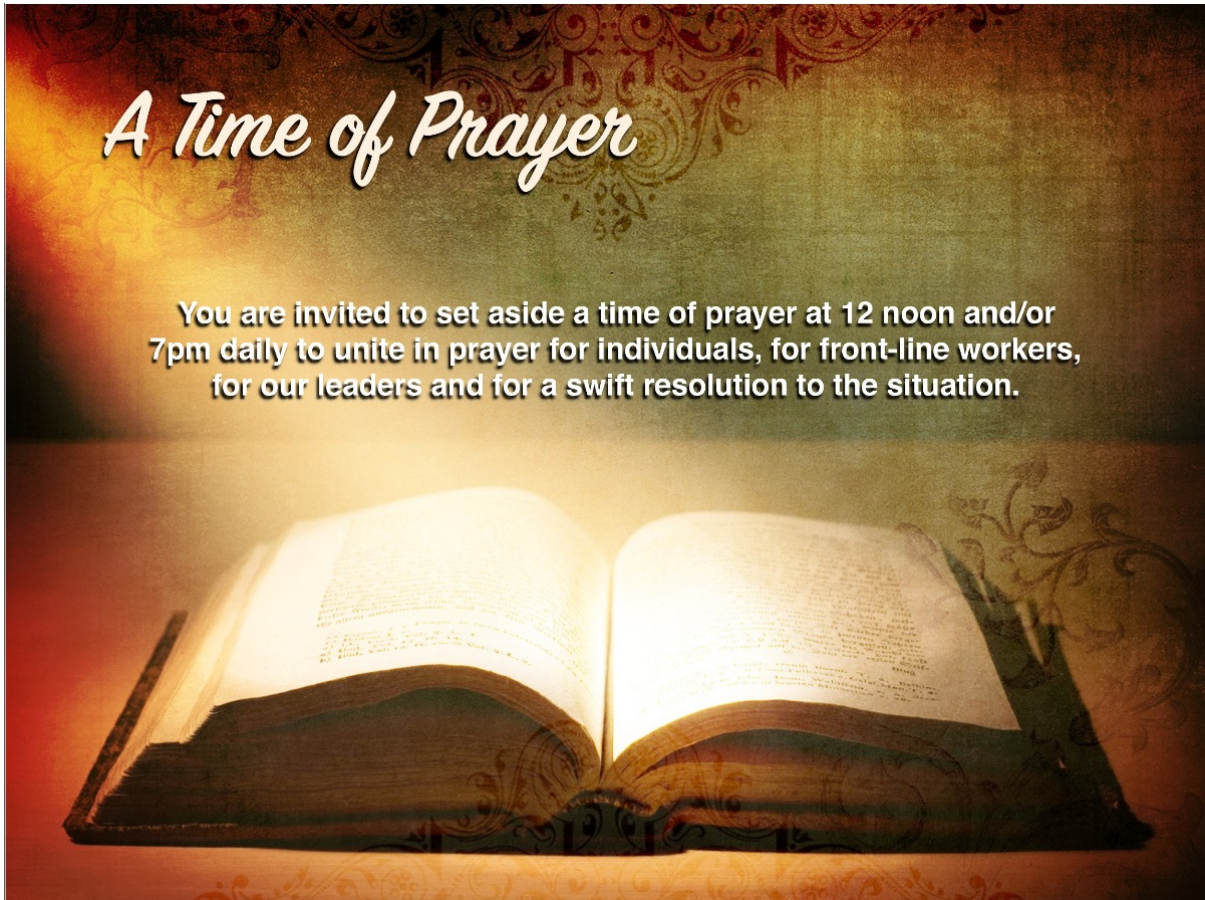

1. All gatherings of people connected with the Church will cease immediately. This includes Sunday worship and all groups within the congregation wherever they are held.
2. On Sunday mornings we will e-mail a link to a recorded act of worship. It will also be available via the KPC Facebook page, Instagram and on the website. CDs of this or a print copy of the sermon will also be available to pick up from the Church Office. For those who do not have internet access, services of worship will also be broadcast on radio and television. It is expected that there will be more broadcasts than at present.
3. Elders and volunteers will make and maintain telephone contact with the whole congregation at whatever frequency each household would find helpful. You are also encouraged to keep in regular telephone contact with others over the coming weeks. If you are in one of the at-risk categories, please keep yourself isolated. If you are in good health, please let us know if you would be available to volunteer in any way.

4. The church will be open as usual from 10am-12noon Monday to Friday for private prayer. Prayer resources will be available. You are asked to wash your hands upon entry and to maintain a safe distance from other people who may be there. If you need to talk to someone, one of the ministers will be in attendance whenever the church is open.
5. Although we cannot gather together just now, our fellowship remains important and you are invited to set aside a time of prayer at 12noon and/or 7pm daily to unite in prayer for individuals, for front-line workers, for our leaders and for a swift resolution to the situation. At 7pm you may like to join with others in lighting a candle. We will make prayer resources available as soon as possible and specific prayer requests can be submitted by e-mail or telephone to the Church Office at any time.

Updates with further information will be circulated in the light of changing circumstances.
