Joining Public Worship: You are welcome to turn up and take a seat. Safety is our primary concern, so if you are experiencing any Covid symptoms or feeling unwell, please stay at home and look after yourself. We will maintain as much distancing between seats as possible. Ventilation is important to reduce Covid spread and, as windows cannot be opened, the rear door is kept open, so please dress warmly! Face masks must continue to be worn (unless exempt). No handshakes or hugs – sorry. Please continue to enter by the main door only. Those arriving for coffee before the service must please give contact details.

Festive Market Saturday, 27th November: Kinross Parish Church and the Traidcraft team will both have stalls at the Festive Market at the Market Park on Saturday, 27th November, 10am–3pm. The KPC stall will have lots of free handouts, particularly in relation to Eco-Congregation matters, and some masks and bags for sale. There's a badge-making machine for the younger ones. The Traidcraft stall is a chance to stock up for yourself and to buy or order Christmas presents such as baskets of goods.

Kilts at Morning Worship on 28th November for St Andrew's Day: Saint Andrew is known as 'the first disciple' and in the New Year we will have a renewed emphasis on growing as disciples – see Alan Reid's letter in the forthcoming Kin-nections magazine. Christians in Scotland have felt a special connection to St Andrew for over a thousand years. He became Scotland's patron saint, and we celebrate his day on 30th November. John Webster, who recently sadly died, always used to round up a few kilties to mark our service near St Andrew's Day. So, if you have a kilt or a tartan skirt or some other tartan item, let's continue the tradition he established by wearing them at our service on Sunday 28th November as we consider again what it means to be a disciple of Jesus.

Ross Mitchell's lockdown pictures exhibition: Please note that the project of Ross Mitchell's lockdown pictures projected on the outside of the church planned for 26th & 27th November has had to be postponed until into the new year for technical reasons.

Traidcraft. We are delighted to let you know that there will be a stall on the following Sundays after Worship: 21st & 28th November and 12th & 19th December. To keep social distancing in place we will have three tables with the same items on them to allow you to browse safely. Payment can be by cash, card or IOUs! Orders can be taken for our Christmas hampers, and we have plenty of Christmas cards, gifts as well as the usual items. Please support Fairtrade this year in your thinking about the Christmas season.

Litter Pick for Saturday 4th December, last litter pick before Christmas. Collect pickers, bags and hi-vis vests from the Church at 9.30 that morning.

Craft Group: A big THANK YOU to all who supported our recent Pop-Up Craft. The sum of £517 was raised for the General Fund of KPC. The Traidcraft Team were also very happy with their sales of £658. The members of the Craft Group have now decided to have a second Pop-Up Craft Shop on Saturday 4th December from 10am until 1pm. There will an opportunity to buy from the Traidcraft Stall too. Hope you can come along.

Growing Young Café: All who are interested in the shaping of our future church life in response to the Growing Young process are invited to a Growing Young Café in the Church on Sunday 5th December at 3pm to help develop the vision over tea and cake.

A REMINDER: Superdrug will not take the weekly trays that the chemist supplies already made up!
