We believe in a God who hears and answers prayer.

Prayer Points for week beginning 26 November

Sunday: As we enter the Advent season of watching, waiting, and hoping, ask God's guidance in your own life and in the life of the congregation that the Light of the World may be seen in us and among us.

Monday: Pray for Lis Stenhouse as she is inducted to the charge of Aberlady and Gullane in East Lothian tonight and pray for the congregations of Cleish and Fossoway as they seek God's leading for their future ministry and mission as part of the Kinross-shire Parish Grouping.

Tuesday: As the Day Centre celebrates its 40th anniversary, give thanks for all who have found food and fellowship there over the years and pray for all the service users, staff, and volunteers that they may enjoy life in its fullness.

Wednesday: Remember the many situations of conflict in our world at this time and pray that the Prince of Peace may be known by victims and perpetrators of violence alike.

Thursday: Pray for tonight's meeting of members of the four Kinross-shire Kirk Sessions with representatives of the Presbytery's Planning and Deployment Committee and ask God to bless and guide the discussions that a clear vision for the way ahead may be discerned.

Friday: Pray for those who bear witness to Christ in situations where they may face persecution for doing so and ask God to protect them and to lead their persecutors to put their trust in Jesus too.

Saturday: Continue to pray for Austin and Alicia as they seek the place of God's choosing for their future ministry in Scotland.

Amen
